"THE GARDEN PARTY" AT WESTERLY

Opera House Crowded at Pleasing Presentation—Matters in Probate Court—Change of Location for Athletic Events—Westerly Company's Suit Against Industrial and Manufacturing Company—Death of Jacob Stern

The introduction of the town's regular water system to Pleasant View means much for the future of that place as a summer resort, and its rapid growth is almost an assured certainty.
For several years a good portion of the beach has been lined with cottages, mostly small, and of plain construction, but some are of substantial and pretentious build. Although the location is one of the best on the coast, with a fine white sandy beach and excellent boating facilities, it has not developed by reason of lack of transportation facilities. Last season a branch trolley road was operated to the beach, and there was a big increase in visitors and a consequent interest in the future development of a naturally located summer resort.

The majority of visitors to Pleasant View last season were people of moderate means from Norwich, Hartford and Springfield, and some of these were so well pleased with the location that they have purchased lots and contemplated building.

While the lack of proper transportation facilities was a hindrance to the growth of Pleasant View, it was as nothing in comparison with the absence of a supply of pure, fresh water, from a perfectly sanitary source, driving wells in natural springs, and served through a modern water system. It is planned to have the extension of the water system completed by June 1, and it is expected that Pleasant View will enjoy a most successful season.

Several cottages have been constructed at the beach, and it is said that before the season opens the trolley company will have erected a pavilion near the terminal of the road.

Boxing bouts and wrestling matches are not permitted in the town of Westerly, in the state known as The Cradle of Religious Liberty, but are permitted just over the bridge in the village of Pawcatuck, town of Stonington, and in the Land of Steady Habits. There have been several of these exhibitions recently, all orderly. They were exhibitions of science, skill and strength, and there was no trace of the brutal, not even as much as is seen in the average football game, or rough game of basketball.

The exhibitions have been held in the upper floor of the Briggs building, lately known as the Bijou theater, and they will be held there no more. H.
D. Barrows of New London, proprietor of the building, who delivered an address in the Congregational church, Pawcatuck, Sunday evening, has declared that exhibitions of that character will not be permitted in his building hereafter.

The promoters of the sports, however, have decided that there will be continuation so long as patronage warrants. In future boxing and wrestling bouts will be held in the first floor of the old Pawcatuck armory building, recently used as a bowling alley, the first to be held there during the present week under the auspices of the Pastime Club.

Bliven Opera house was crowded Tuesday evening, and the large audience enjoyed the excellent rendition of The Garden Party by local ana-tours, under the direction of L. J.
Rosenbaum, and under the auspices of Boys' Lodge, Daughters of B. B. B. B.
The programme was as follows:

Master of ceremonies—L. J. Rosenbaum.
Walters—Edward Brown, James Laughlin, Thomas Tait, H. H. Steadman, Charles R. Brown, John Blay, Come Along Little Girl, red, white, introducing waltzes: I Could Learn to Love You, Mrs. Alex. Mitchell, Mrs.
Robert Mason, On a Crocodile, Edward Brown, The Garden of Dreams, Miss Susie Kingston, Joseph Leatham; Down in Jungletown, James Laughlin; Kiss, Kiss, Kiss, Miss Whittier; The Girl I Had a Thousand Lives, Walter Reith; Big Chief Battleaxe, Edmond St. Onge, assisted by Nina Lewis, May Reager, Grace Maine, Mattie Brown, Mabel Given; Jack and Jill, Irene Horgan; Edward Brown; In Sweet Loveland, Joseph Leatham, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James Syne, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Mason, Jr., Charlotte Woodward, Lillian Dove, Ada Holdsworth, short calendar session next Friday.

He also ordered that the deposition of R. D. Judd, formerly treasurer of the company, and now in Danvers, be taken, on or before next Tuesday, and that the case be closed on that day.

Jacob Sterne, who was engaged in the dry goods business, conducting a store known as the Beehive, for over thirty years, died suddenly Tuesday at his home in Meriden. Mr. Sterne did business in the Brown building, and after the store was destroyed by fire about four years ago he removed to Torrington and later to Meriden.
He was a member of Granite council, Westerly, Royal Arcanum.

Mr. Sterne, survived by Mrs.
Sterne and seven daughters, Mrs. Solomon Wertheim of Belle Plaine, Iowa, Mrs. Jacob Helmsheimer, Mrs. Frederick Helmsheimer, Mrs. Jacob Helmsheimer of New York, Mrs. I. Wise and Mrs. A. Hutter of Hartford and Mrs.
Chapin of Meriden.

Local Laconics.
Mrs. Eldridge P. Prentiss of New London is the guest of Mrs. Walter P. Dixon in Westerly.

Elmer J. Flynn of Westerly has been engaged as a conductor on the Norwich-Westerly trolley road.

Alexander Tamboe, a former resident of Westerly, died at his home in Providence Monday evening. He is survived by Mrs. Tamboe, two sons and four daughters.

A new car, painted yellow, will soon take the place of the regular Norwich-Westerly car, on the Ashaway-Westerly trolley road, the color being selected as a distinguishing mark from the Norwich car. This new car is of the single truck pattern and with hand brakes.

Harvard Bruce, the Norwich newspaperman, who had a hand in starting the Westerly Herald at the old Tribune plant on Canal street in 1899, was in town Sunday and Monday, looking up the acquaintances of his newspaper days here. Mr. Bruce has covered a good bit of ground since he left Westerly in the summer of 1900.
He went from here to Greenfield, Mass., where he was located at two different times on two different papers and later he had editorial charge for a time of two dailies in Findlay, Ohio.
Then he was with The Enterprise at Burlington, N. J., and he has been returned from Raleigh, N. C., where he was managing editor of the Evening Times and state editor for the Hearst news service. On account of the poor health of his parents he has spent the past winter at home.

UNIFORM LAWS BETWEEN NEW ENGLAND STATES.
Representative Chandler desires to frame another bill for appointment of a commission—Dr. Pollock of Norwich strongly in favor of the New Bill.

Hartford, March 16.—The matter of uniform laws between the New England states on certain subjects came as a surprise today to the committee on the judiciary when Representative Bishop of New Haven and Representative Chandler of Rocky Hill appeared and desired to frame another bill for the appointment of a commission on uniform law. The original measure was presented by Representative Chandler and was opposed by Mr.
Bishop.

Representative Higgins and a number of others were heard on the matter and it was decided that it was too late to do anything. In rejoinder to this it was intimated that the measure might act as a spanker on the present commission on uniform laws and get it to act a little more quickly.
Representative Bishop was of the opinion that it would do no harm and might do a lot of good. He said that Commissioners Russell and Arvine had intimated that they did not wish any more work, but that if they are asked to, they can try to get more uniform legislation.

H. R. Scoville appeared in regard to having the court of common pleas sit in Litchfield county.
The measure against fraudulent diversion of water from water pipes was supported by Henry Roberts of Hartford and Samuel Stoddard of Bridgeport.

No one appearing regarding the measure concerning acts of battery.
The bill which provides for the sterilization of degenerates had strong support. It was strongly likely that the committee will report favorably on it. There is a similar law in Indiana which is said to be working with extreme success and which rid the state of a very undesirable element.

Representative Tomlinson of Danbury, the father of the bill, read from the Medical Journal in regard to it, and spoke strongly in favor of it. Other speakers, all in favor of it, were Dr. H. D. Anderson and Dr. Sheldon.
Dr. H. D. Anderson said it would in time become a very popular means of preventing an increase of idiots and criminals.

Dr. Pollock of Norwich took of a number of insane persons on whom the law should be exercised and favored it strongly.
There will be another hearing on it before the committee, owing to the fact that it has not received much publicity, a fact that many of the insane men of the state have not been aware of, and so have not appeared.
A number of other matters were taken up, but many of the bills appeared and there was no one in support of them.

The hearings on a number of the judgeships nominated by Governor Lilley were heard, but there was no opposition.
